

The Processing of Personal Data (Protection of Individuals)
(Amendment) Law of 2003

1. Replacement of section 15 of the Law with the following:

15-(1) Personal data can not be processed by anyone for purposes of direct marketing or provision of services, unless the data subject notifies his written consent to the controller.

(2) If a controller wishes to carry out processing of personal data for the purposes referred to in subsection (1), he may, for the purpose of obtaining his consent, use the name and address of the data subject provided that the data has been obtained from sources accessible to public.

2. Deletion of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 24 of the Law, (which provides for a Register of persons objecting to their name being used for direct marketing purposes to be kept by the Commissioner).
